UNIVERSITY OF HARTFORD

INTERNATIONAL PATHWAY PROGRAM

2019—2020
At the University of Hartford, we’re committed to helping you create your own path to success. We offer a unique environment—a SUPPORTIVE CULTURE of EXCEPTIONAL EDUCATION that fosters enduring SELF-RESPECT, unwavering SELF-CONFIDENCE, lasting FRIENDSHIPS, a PASSION FOR LEARNING, and a set of well-honed LIFE SKILLS.

You’ll be able to immerse yourself in the cultural heart and historical soul of America. Located in West Hartford, Connecticut—a welcoming, and affluent suburban community in southern New England—the school is ideally located a mere two-hour drive from both New York City and Boston, Massachusetts.

INTERNATIONAL PATHWAY PROGRAM (IPP)

The University of Hartford IPP offers you a gateway to our highly ranked programs, while also providing comprehensive English training to ensure academic success. The Pathway is open to students who have proven their academic ability but need to strengthen their English skills to achieve positive results in the collegiate environment.

*All Health Sciences majors must meet University deadlines for application—up to one year or more in advance—and must have grades well above average in Math and Science.
Undergraduate IPP students will be housed in Complex F on campus, a standard suite style residence hall. Your shared room comes fully furnished with a single bed, desk, chair, and storage unit. Bedding (sheets, pillow, towels, and comforter) is provided. Amenities include a study lounge, laundry facility, multi-purpose rooms, air-conditioned rooms, phone, cable, high speed internet, and kitchen.

DINING PLAN
Undergraduate IPP students will be enrolled in the 7-Day All-Access Meal Plan, which includes unlimited meals at the Commons and $100 Dining Dollars each semester. Graduate students may choose to participate in other dining plans.
